CLAREMONT, CALIFORNIA 91711

Program in International Relations

December 15, 1975

Mr. William Colby, Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Colby:

I can't tell you how much I appreciated your having taken part in the Pacem in Terris IV Convocation and how pleasant it was to be associated with you in connection with it. It goes without saying that although we have some disagreements, I admire greatly your performance.

(I agree with much of it).

Please note that you have a standing invitation in California, both at the Claremont Colleges and at the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions in Santa Barbara, and should the opportunity ever arise for you to take advantage of it, we hope you will.

With warmest best wishes.

Yours sincerely,
